Synopsis

British designer Carolyn Quertermaine made her mark in the design world through her work for Joseph, Dolce & Gabbana and Donna Karan. Here she uses rooms as canvases; as a medium for self-expression and a means of creating moods. Inspiration is taken from the textures, shapes and colours around her as old is combined with new in a palette of sorbet colours - citrine, violet, tangerine and emerald. Influences are as diverse as a Tuscan frescoed wall and a decorated Cocteau plate.

Customer Reviews

Whenever I want to feel good, I look at this book. It is one of my favorites! Just wonderful, random, creative, beautiful images. Big beautiful photos. I have picked it up a hundred times and still have not read a word because I love the images so much... and they typed a lot in a script font which is not very legible... but hey, it is pretty! If pink makes you feel good, get this book!

Beautiful book- inspiring to read and thumb through. The writing is well done and the photos are amazing. Loved it!

beautiful book, as billed.
