I can't imagine that anyone who ever played duets put this book together. It's absolutely impossible to use without destroying the book. The piano parts are in the front of the book. Then there is a page showing a pair of scissors. Then follows the clarinet part. We had to cut the book in two so that each person could read his/her music. Why not just make the second part an insert (like most companies do)?

Even on my laptop, this is too small to read by both clarinet and piano players. I think the paper version will be required. I would love to return this Kindle edition.

I bought this for my 11 year old nephew just learning the clarinet. His Mom plays piano so this will fit the bill perfectly in helping them learn while spending time together.

Love, Love, Love this book! I love the harmonies between the piano and clarinet, I love that both parts are relatively easy to sight read!

Loved it
